The agreement with Agro Technic includes both a substantial initial stocking order and annual minimums.

Heng Yiwei, Managing Director of Agro Technic, stated, "Singapore is a city in a garden, the modern metropolis of the region. Agro Technic has been at the forefront of bringing in innovative solutions for the public health sector since the 1970s. We continue to do so year on year, bringing to market solutions that are not only environmentally friendly but most importantly effective! The product range that Senestech offers, is a perfect fit to our business model, long term strategy, and market positioning and runs in tandem with the requirements of our garden city. Together with Senestech, we look forward to making Singapore our flagship from where we will spearhead the adoption of a cleaner, greener, more humane form of rodent management to the rest of the region. Let's EVOLVE!"

About SenesTech

We are committed to improving the health of the world by humanely managing animal pest populations through fertility control. We are experts in fertility control to manage animal pest populations. We invented ContraPest, the only U.S. EPA-registered contraceptive for male and female rats, and Evolve, an EPA-designated minimum-risk contraceptive currently offered for rats. ContraPest and Evolve fit seamlessly into all integrated pest management programs, significantly improving the overall goal of effective pest management. We strive for clean cities, efficient businesses and happy households – with a product designed to be humane, effective and sustainable.
